Join us for a follow-up to last year's panel on trends in microfinance relative to the world financial crisis. We will hear from key experts as they discuss the impact to microfinance performance in Latin America and the outlook for the future. Gain insight from their experiences and learn about key similarities and differences across countries, with special attention to the crisis situations in Nicaragua and Haiti.

Topics covered include:

- How did microfinance fare across Latin America in 2009?
- How did microfinance perform in those countries in crisis?
- What is the outlook for the remainder of 2010 and beyond?

Our distinguished panelists include:

Julie T. Katzman, General Manager and Head, Multilateral Investment Fund (MIF) of the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)

Gary P. Kochubka, Senior Director, Standard & Poor's (S&P)

Rosario Perez, Chief Executive Officer, Pro Mujer

Peter V. A. Shaw, Managing Director, FitchRatings

The panel discussion will be moderated by Sheila Hooda, Senior Managing Director, TIAA-CREF
